

A Final Note

The Agony & Glory of the Cross has been provided as a gift from the churches of Christ. The subject matter of the book was chosen because it represents the heart of the message that we strive to preach and teach. We believe that it is the heart of the teaching of the New Testament. The churches of Christ are committed to following the New Testament as their only creed for salvation and worship and as their standard for daily living. Although we are not perfect, we desire above all else to be CHRIST-ians, that is, followers of Christ.

If we can help you in any way, please call on the church of Christ nearest to you. Here is a website that may help you to find the location where it is meeting: www.churchzip.com. We especially would be delighted to get to know you and encourage you, if we can, in your walk with Christ.

If you would like help with further study of the Bible, we will be happy to provide a free copy of the book Into the Abundant Life, which discusses more thoroughly how to become a Christian. Just ask the person who gave you this book on the cross to get one for you, and he or she will be glad to do it. If that person is unavailable to you, please go to the website www.alltheworld2015.org and ask for the book; it will promptly be mailed to you or brought to you by a member of the church.

We are so happy that you have read this book. Think deeply about its message. Let us stand together at the foot of the cross. As another has said, "With Jesus we cannot lose, and without Him, we cannot win."
