Truth for Today World Mission School HIGHLIGHTS

Reading-based School of Biblical Studies

In the summer of 2011, Truth for Today World Mission School started an exciting new Reading-Based School of Biblical Studies (RSBS) with a group of 10 preachers/leaders in the congregations in Mumbai, India.

These men have been faithful to take 46 courses using our Truth for Today commentaries over the past 12+ years. They had to pause during COVID-19, but they faithfully resumed after lockdowns were lifted. With each course, the students are given a physical commentary that is mailed to them from Searcy, AR. The men gather weekly to discuss what they read throughout the week and have a test to complete. There are six tests per course.

TFTWMS has been richly blessed by these men who have stayed faithful to the Word, and we are so thankful that our Lord has connected them with our material in such a vital way. We ask that you keep these preachers in your prayers.
