

Why Start a Bible School?

WHY STUDY TOGETHER?

While ThroughTheScriptures.com allows individuals to study at their own pace, learning together in a school setting offers many benefits.

A local school creates a supportive environment where students can grow spiritually while developing a stronger knowledge of God's Word.

GROUP STUDY PROVIDES:

- Encouragement and accountability
- Fellowship with other students
- Deeper understanding through discussion
- Motivation to stay on schedule

HOW TO START A SCHOOL

Steps to Begin

The organizer serves as the school's principal, helping guide and coordinate the program.

GETTING STARTED IS SIMPLE:

1. Recruit interested students.
2. Hold an introductory meeting.
3. Choose a start date for the school.
4. Help students create accounts at ThroughTheScriptures.com.
5. Enroll everyone in the first course.

Schools usually begin with:

THE LIFE OF CHRIST, 1
followed by
THE LIFE OF CHRIST, 2

Beginning together allows the group to progress through the study at the same pace.

Weekly Meetings

ENCOURAGING ONE ANOTHER

Weekly meetings strengthen both learning and fellowship among students.

During meetings students may:

- Review study guides together
- Discuss difficult passages
- Encourage one another in their progress
- Share devotional thoughts from their reading

Students may take turns presenting short devotionals based on what they have studied that week.

CELEBRATION

Occasional meals or celebrations after completing a course can also help build lasting friendships among the students.

What Students Receive

Each ThroughTheScriptures.com course provides a complete learning experience designed for serious Bible study.

STUDENTS RECEIVE:

- A textbook written by Bible scholars, including access to a digital copy.
- A structured reading schedule.
- Study guides highlighting key concepts.
- Supplemental materials such as maps, charts, and videos.
- Six lesson reviews to help strengthen comprehension.

Students may retake lesson reviews if necessary to ensure mastery of the material while maintaining a high standard of learning.

All course materials remain available to the student after completion.

INVITING OTHERS TO STUDY

You can recruit students in several ways:

- Announce the school during church assemblies
- Share information with nearby congregations
- Personally invite friends and neighbors
- Reach out to members of the community

Many people who may not initially attend worship services are willing to participate in a Bible school setting.

ThroughTheScriptures.com schools can also serve as:

- Evangelism opportunities
- Congregational study programs
- Preacher training resources

A local Bible school can become a powerful tool for teaching God's Word and reaching others.
